Dear Sewing Friends,

I hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas and Happy New Year and you had time to spend with family and loved ones. I would like to thank all of my wonderful customers that have helped keep our doors open during these hard times. We really appreciate you! Let's make 2012 a great year for sewing.

We have added a lot of new patterns and fabrics to our inventory ready to get you excited about sewing again. Please stop in to say hello, see all the new stuff and maybe sign up for a new class.

We are so excited to have Kari Mecca coming to teach for us on Friday, March 16th 10:00—4:00 p.m.. She is the author of Sewing with Whimsy and More Sewing with Whimsy. She will be teaching her Candied Kisses dress from the More Sewing with Whimsy. The child's dress features an easy scalloped yoke with scalloped hem and flower trims, using her small set of Whimsy Sticks. Sign up early as I'm sure this class will fill fast.

In Feb., we are also starting another beautiful embroidery block quilt, "Tuscan Gardens" which is a BERNINA exclusive.

*I hope to see you soon. Again, thanks so much for your business.
Paula*
